NDRS

PRESS KIT 2026

Andres Leon, known as NDRS, is a Venezuelan DJ and producer creating a distinct blend of minimal house and Latin-leaning tech. Raised in Miami and now based in New York, his sound is defined by stripped-back grooves and percussive warmth.

His releases – including Asking 2, Uh Oh, Liqa, and Muita – reflect this approach, pairing minimal house structures with subtle Latin textures and club-ready rhythm, garnering support from the likes of Manda Moor, Josh Baker, and more.

Beyond the studio, NDRS is the founder of TREMENDO, a Latin tech/house-focused party series in NYC, and a resident DJ + cofounder of Rhythm Cartel NYC, a collective for DJs and producers across the city's underground electronic scene.

From intimate rooms to larger stages, NDRS has built a reputation for reading the crowd and letting the music speak. His sets are intentional and groove-forward – designed for the dance floor, and those who intend to stay on it.
